

Baptism of the Lord

—January 10, 2010 A.D.

Father Charles

All of us are faced with difficult times at some point in our lives. It can be an illness, the loss of someone close to us or financial difficulties. Getting through the day let alone the week can be a struggle. Sundays are different: all you need to do is go to Mass and listen. Just listen to Monsignor talk to each one of us. He brings everything back into perspective. He explains the Gospel by telling a story and talking as if he were sitting at the kitchen table. Sometimes it seems like it's just for you and he knows what is on your mind. He reminds us if we trust in God everything is possible. Father has a way of making you feel that you are truly important and not just another parishioner. He is never too busy and reaches out to everyone. Monsignor has taught me to listen to the word of God by living the word of God in my daily actions. I look forward to being at Mass and listening. I leave with an overwhelming feeling of peace and love. Thank you, Fr. Charles.
